

Title:

An Introduction to the Federal Acquisition Security Council (FASC)

Length:

30 minutes (20 min speaking with 10 min Q&A)

Abstract Body:

The Federal Acquisition Security Council (FASC) was established by the Federal Acquisition Supply Chain Security Act of 2018 in response to the need to ensure a government-wide approach to evaluate threats and vulnerabilities in government Information and Communications Technology and Services (ICTS) supply chains and address supply chain security risks. Chaired by OMB, the FASC is an interagency council with representatives from General Services Administration; Department of Homeland Security (DHS); Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI); Department of Justice; Department of Defense (DOD); and Department of Commerce. This presentation provides an overview of the FASC, its authorities and functions, and the responsibilities of the Information Sharing Agency (ISA) – CISA on behalf of DHS.
